Suresh Kanniyappan

Full Stack .Net Developer with Azure | Development Manager |
Scrum Master
Bengaluru, Karnataka, India

Summary

.NET Full stack developer with 9+ years of Development and Team Management experience. I am also the SCRUM Master for the team and ability to adapt new processes quickly. I also have experience of working on small, mid and large sized organization which gives me an exposure to work with various environments with different processes.

In my current position, I maintain an exceedingly functional software development environment while working on diverse projects, I have a knack for learning and adapting quickly, also work independently. I respond to requests from colleagues and clients in a timely manner and am adept at prioritizing multiple ongoing projects. Additionally, I have expertise in:

- # Consulting with clients to determine user needs and design solutions.
- # Overseeing debugging, patches and implementation of new features and managing SDLC.
- # Full stack development using multiple technologies.
- # Manual and Automation testing of products along with unit and integration testing across browsers
- # Maintaining accurate schedules and meetings objectives on simultaneous projects.
